

REDWOOD REMNANTS

October 2020

Past President's Message

Hello and welcome Fall! By now most of you know we have moved our meeting location to the Humboldt Grange 5845 Humboldt Hill Road, Eureka (at the foot of Humboldt Hill). We know it is a stretch for some of you to get there, but we hope there will be some ride sharing going on that will help.

Our first meeting was well attended, and the feedback was it was good to see everyone.

We hope you will join us for the October 6 the meeting with social time at 5:30 and the meeting at 6:00. Yara Hailey will be sharing spooky quilts and we hope you will bring your Halloween favorites to share, too. We have decided to have Show & Tell earlier in the meeting, but please stay for the whole meeting so you will not miss anything.

We will have last chance to pick up some Opportunity Quilt tickets and turn in your ticket stubs and money as we will be drawing the winner at the meeting!

Of course, we will have the block of the month, fat quarter raffle, raffle table, placemats, and our library cart is back thanks to Terry Tauzer. There will be a few boxes of free pattern books.

Our annual membership renewal is due this month. You can print a form included in the newsletter or from our website at: REQG@gmail.com. Also, please join us on Facebook at: Redwoodempirequiltersguild@gmail.com. We are looking for ways to enhance your membership with discounts at classes and events (and possibly at a few local fabric shops). Stay tuned for more on that.

We have some interesting and fun meetings planned for the November and December meetings. January and February will feature a Saturday sewing day, but no evening meetings. Sign-ups will be available soon. Plus, the Board has added meetings in July and August.

Upcoming Calendar Dates:

Thursday, November 3 meeting: Patriotic Quilts with Jeanine Norrish and Shelly Sellers

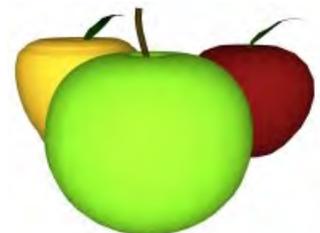

Saturday, November 19: Veterans quilts sew day

Thursday, December 1: meeting: Holiday Quilts, plus demos, and more

Saturday, January 14: Sew day

Saturday, February 11: Sew day

Sew on and Sew Forth, Martha Johnson

Tis the Season of Ghosts, Goblins and Scary Things that Go Thump in the Night

Here it is the month of October already! We should be getting colder nights and shorter days. Stores will have their shelves full of Halloween candy and costumes. The fabric stores should have at least a few bolts of seasonal fabrics for Halloween quilts and wall hangings. If you want inspiration for what to do with those Halloween fat quarters or yardage, come to the Thursday, October 6th meeting at the Humboldt Hill Grange and meet Yara Hailey who will give a trunk show highlighting her Halloween quilts.

Yara is an avid Halloween enthusiast. Like Susie Freeze who loves vintage quilts and is the recipient of everyone's unfinished vintage projects, Yara loves Halloween is the recipient of Halloween and Day of the Dead fabrics that people do not know what to do with. The fabric can be glow- in-the-dark or neon colored, large print or cartoon figured, bright colored or dark and foreboding. She loves them all and creates great quilts for herself and her children.

Yara is a mother of three and has made each of her children a baby blanket, a lap quilt and a bed quilt. For herself she loves making Halloween quilts. She makes them scrappy, spooky, weird and with a bit of humor. Be sure to attend the October meeting and be ready to laugh or be spooked.

The Humboldt Hill Grange will open at 5:30, the meeting will start at 6 with "Show and Tell" followed by Yara's trunk show.

Nancy Frost, Terry Tauzer, and Lynne Todoroff
1 st Vice Presidents

Mark your calendars for Saturday, November 19th. We will have our first activity/sewing day at our new meeting location, The Humboldt Grange. We are throwing a "Patriotic Patch Party". With a Veteran's Day theme, we will be assembling quilt-top making "teams" to see how many Hospice and Housing Veteran's quilts we can turn out in a day for Community Quilts. Hospice has let us know that they have a current large need for the Veteran's Quilts.

The guild will be providing the material.

If you know someone who is new to the world of quilting, this would be a perfect opportunity to get them involved. Every skill level is welcome and encouraged. We want to make this a fun, productive day.

I will have a sign-up sheet at the October meeting and talk more about the sew day then.

Also, if you have any thoughts about future activities or a spring workshop, please let me, Yvonne Cooney, or any of the board members know. This is your guild, and we want to deliver programs and activities that are meaningful to you!

Catherine Brown
Outgoing 2nd Vice President

OPPORTUNITY QUILT

First off, a great big THANK YOU to my fellow members. Opportunity Quilt Raffle wouldn't be what it is without the help and support of all of you. That said, a gentle reminder that some members have yet to turn in their money from picking up ticket packets, etc. Money and stubs will be accepted through the break at our October 6 meeting. The winning ticket will be drawn during the second half of that meeting. But, if at all possible, I would appreciate receiving money and stubs either in the mail addressed to the REQG Post Office Box or delivered /mailed directly to me. Call me at 707-599-8004 to make arrangements if you would like to in-person deliver.

"Rainbow Sherbet" has been very well received out in the community. We've distributed almost 6,000 tickets and banked $3,366.00 plus whatever has been sold at Coast Central Credit Union. They have been an invaluable outlet this past year.

Remember to turn in your money and stubs on or before October 6, our next meeting at the Humboldt Grange! I hope to see you all there!!!

Pat Smith, Opportunity Quilt Raffle Chair

Fat Quarter Table

Hi everyone!

I missed the first meeting because I had already made plans for Wednesday when the night changed 🗓️. Please give me a second chance!

Please bring fat quarters with 1. fall colors (warm oranges, browns, yellows etc)

2. Theme: Coffee, Hot chocolate, Tea ☕ hot beverages

3. Solids or background fall fat quarters are good

Thanks for playing 🤝 😊

*A fat Quarter must measure 18" x 21 ". For every fat quarter you turn in you get to write your name on a piece of paper for a drawing with the chance to win all of the fat quarters brought that night 🎁

Carrie Morris

Fat Quarter Chair

Community Quilts:

My two passions are gardening and the fiber world, and as the seasons change my interest in one ebbs as my interest in the other picks up. It is almost dark at dinner time now and I am thinking more and more about quilts, and less and less about dead heading. I know some of you are year-round quilters, but others are more like me, motivated to sit at the machine on those days of rain.

With two teams cutting fabrics the Community Quilt program has plenty of kits to check out. We also hope some more of you will try your hand at machine quilting. It doesn't have to be complicated, and it is a great way to build your skill.

While we were building the program-during the quarantine- we made an abundance of the Take 5 pattern. This year we have introduced a new kit, Roman Square. Joanie Weiser and Ann Anderson are helping us write up patterns, so if you have a design you think might be good for the program, share it with us.

Community quilts is more than just us donating quilts to the less fortunate in the community, it is also a way to build community amongst ourselves, and we hope to see you at upcoming sew days.
