

REDWOOD REMNANTS

June 2023

Hello fellow quilting enthusiasts!

Just in case you question our use of the word "fellow", it derives from the Old English feolaga which means roughly "one who shares something" and is etymologically not gendered. Ha! Good to know,,,

We who share this craft, or art, or obsession are so fortunate to be engaged in quilting in this time and place. The advancement of the tools we use and the quality of the fabrics available are impressive compared to just 30 years ago. Even more impressive is the community of fellow quilters we are surrounded by here in Humboldt, as well as the beauty of this place, are remarkable.

Narrowing down from this sweeping view we come to the Redwood Empire Quilters Guild. REQG was established by a group of like-minded women (this history would be an interesting subject for one of our meetings) to, as our Mission Statement says:

The Redwood Empire Quilters Guild promotes the appreciation and preservation of quilts and quilt making. We provide quilts to charitable community organizations to meet community needs. We sponsor and support educational opportunities that further public knowledge of quilts, quilt making, and quilt history.

The founders created a system of officers, committees, and documents to guide and support REQG into the future. So here we are in the future, still here, still appreciating, preserving, making, and serving the community. All of which couldn't be done without YOU, you the members.

We are just a month and a few days away from our biennial, Heart of the Redwoods Quilt Show. This is one of the biggest opportunities we have to educate our community about what we do and why we exist. If you haven't already signed up, come be a part of this wonderful event.

Thank you to all the officers and committee members who have stepped forward, present and past who make this remarkable organization prosper. Right now we find ourselves in need of a 1st Vice President who is in charge of guild programs. This could be one person, two people or a committee of individuals. A brief job description will be forthcoming in your email soon. Please read and see what you can do to join us in providing your skills to help us move forward.

We feel so privileged to be a part of this organization, We hope you do too.

Maggie Stimson

Amy Gomes

1st VP

Many Thank You's to all of you who provided baskets, helped supervise, closed the auction and of course ALL of you who bid enthusiastically and took home treasures. I look forward to seeing the creations you are dreaming about today. The Show n' Tell was terrific too! All of us together made a very successful Basket Auction 2023. And then we had a helpful crew rearrange the tables/chairs for the retreat for Friday and Saturday. It was so nice to have tables available for setting up our work space when we walked in the door Friday. Susie organized a wonderful table of prizes, special Thank you to Pat Biteman, one for everyone, and raffled leftovers. There were snacks too. REQG quilters take care of each other. What a splendid weekend!

Our June meeting is our annual meeting and election of officers. My term as 1st VP is up for election. I encourage you to consider running for the office of 1st VP: Grab a friend or two to brainstorm program ideas, bring a new perspective and inspire membership. I have a 3 inch binder of 1st VP history. Call me if you have questions.

Also at the June meeting Nancy Frost and Wanda Wahlund will present information about the Quilt Show. And of course we will have our usual monthly raffles and Show n' Tell.

Please get in your entry forms, gotta have quilts to hang or no quilt show. The quilt show is just a few weeks away.

Date to Submit Entry Forms for Quilt Show

Entry Forms for the quilt show must be received by Saturday June 3. The Entry form must be completed but quilters have an additional month to complete their quilts. The Entry Form deadline is 1 ½ months before the quilt show to allow time to enter all the information on the entry form into the computer and print out information cards for each quilt.

Quilters may submit five (5) quilt Entry Forms without paying a fee. In addition, quilters may submit forms for Honor Quilts and challenge quilts and not be charged. Entry Forms and Entry Guidelines are available at the Guild's website. Forms can be found at each of the four quilt shops – Lavender Rose, Ocean Wave, Stitch and Springville Quilt Barn.

Hanging Sleeves are Required For Large Quilts

Any quilt wider than 48+ inches must have a hanging sleeve. The Entry Guidelines includes directions for making hanging sleeves. Some people sew their sleeves on and never intend to remove them, while others use a loose whip stitch and sew on temporary sleeves that can be easily removed after the show.

Commercially made hanging sleeves can be purchased from online sources or from one of the local quilt stores. Call to see which store has them in stock.

Susie Freese has volunteered to help individuals sew their hanging sleeves onto their quilts. Call her at 707-616-6104 to arrange an appointment. Be sure to have your hanging sleeve prepared/purchased before calling.

Volunteers needed To Help with Quilt Show

Guild members are expected to volunteer for at least 6 hours for the quilt show. Those hours can include helping with receiving, loading the trucks with equipment, helping with setup, working at the show in any of the various rooms – Bobbin Bistro (catering), 9 Patch Party, Demonstrations and Bed Turning or the large gym.

There are jobs that involve sitting, others that require standing. We need volunteers in the gym to wear white gloves (we provide) to show visitors the back of quilts. We need volunteers to help sew 9 patches together so that visitors can see how they look on the display wall. We need people to demonstrate a quilting technique. There are plenty of jobs, if everyone steps up and volunteers, we should have a successful show. But it takes all of us to ensure that the show is successful.

If you can't volunteer at the show, help by selling Opportunity Quilt tickets, putting quilt show yard signs in your yard/neighborhood/town, or buying a friend a ticket to attend the show.

Show Attendance

The quilt show is the guild's primary venue for raising money to operate the guild. The guild has some large expenses that it is obligated to pay to keep the guild afloat. Our big-ticket items are facility rentals for meetings, workshops, retreats, and the quilt show, storage unit rentals, liability and fire insurance plus speaker fees, printing costs, etc.

It is critical that we get the word out to family, friends, neighbors about the quilt show to encourage as many people as possible to attend. Our last quilt show had about 900 attendees. We need to increase that number to 1,500 - 2,000 attendees to break even on expenses for the show plus provide money for ongoing guild expenses. So please, invite your family, friends, and neighbors to come to the show.

Directions For Making a Hanging Sleeve for a Quilt

A hanging sleeve helps distribute weight of a quilt evenly if it is to be hung. Ideally all quilts should have a hanging sleeve attached to the back top of the quilt. For our quilt show we are asking that any quilt measuring more than 48 inches in width have a hanging sleeve attached to the back of the quilt. Hanging sleeves can match the backing fabric or be a neutral solid. Hanging sleeves can often be purchased at local quilt stores or online. Some people remove the hanging sleeve after showing the quilt, other leave the sleeve on so the recipient of the quilt can hang the quilt if they wish. Make your hanging sleeve by following the directions below:

1. Cut a piece of fabric 8 ½ inches wide and 1 to 2 inches shorter than the width of the quilt.
2. Hem the two short ends by making a ¼ inch double fold and stitching the folds.
3. Fold the fabric in half lengthwise with the wrong sides together and stitch a ¼ inch seam. You have just created a tube.
4. Turn the tube right sides out and press the tube flat with the seam running down the middle.
5. Place and pin the pressed tube with the seam line against the quilt backing just below the binding at the top of the quilt. Note the tube will end about 1 to 2 inches from either end of the quilt edge.
6. Use a blind hem stitch or whip stitch to sew the tube's top fold line to the binding stitch line. Remove the pins. Make sure your stitches do not show on the front of your quilt.
7. Ease the lower fold line up about ½ inch and pin the tube to the backing. Again, use a blind hem stitch or whip stitch to attach the lower half of the tube to the back of your quilt.
8. Remove the pins and lay the pressed fold line back down. The fold line will cover the stitches and will provide "give" when the hanging rod is inserted into the sleeve.

Quilt Display at Blood Bank Set to Change Early June

I'm looking for a few smaller quilts to display at the Northern California Blood Bank located near St. Joseph's Hospital. The quilts are displayed in the room where donors sit giving blood. The quilts provide the donors with a pleasant view and a way to take their minds off donating.

I need about 22 quilts that are no wider than 45 inches and no longer than 45 inches. The quilts will be on display until September when another display will be hung. Donors often ask to purchase quilts, so if you are interested in selling your smaller quilts, be sure to set a price.

I will be collecting quilts for the June-September display at the June 1 quilt guild meeting. Please bring your smaller quilts with purchase price attached. I will have the interest buyer call you to arrange the sale. The quilts must remain on display until September. If you have questions, please call Nancy Frost, 707-443-5264.

Dutch Lottery at Quilt Show

There are some wonderful baskets that Connie Johnson has put together for the quilt show Dutch Lottery. One basket is ideal for a family game night with dominoes, darts, a puzzle, etc. Another basket is for the Italian pasta lovers – beautiful matching salad and pasta bowls with pasta and marinera sauces. There are already about 8 different baskets. One basket will contain a brand-new sewing machine donated by one of the quilt show vendors.

Tickets will cost $1 for one ticket, $5 for 6 tickets, $10 for 12 tickets and $20 for 30 tickets. We will accept cash, check, Venmo or credit card.

Guest Tickets are Available for Purchase

At the June 1st meeting you can purchase guest tickets for your family members and friends to attend the July Quilt Show. The tickets make wonderful gifts. Send a friend a card and enclose a guest ticket to the show. Show them how much you care. Tickets cost $10 for an adult, $8 for seniors 65-89, and free for children under 12 and seniors 90 and above.

Opportunity Quilt

Hello everyone! Opportunity Quilt ticket sales are progressing, and the quilt is hanging at Coast Central Credit Union downtown Eureka branch once again.

Anyone needing more tickets to sell, or purchase, just contact me by phone at 707-599-8004 or by text using the same number. And, of course, you can always see me at the Opportunity quilt table at our monthly meetings.

Redwood Empire Quilters Guild
Board Meeting April 10th, 2023
4:00 PM at Maggie Stimson's House

Members present: Maggie Stimson, Amy Gomes, Angie Tustison, Terry Tauzer, Kathy Laforge, Yvonne Jolley, Martha Johnson, Susie Freese, Nancy Frost, Lynne Todoroff, and Jeanine Norrish. Meeting called to order at 4:12 PM by Amy Gomes.

Co-Presidents, Amy Gomes, and Maggie Stimson:

Maggie has an upcoming appointment with John Stroka about the REQG website. She asked the Board about what should be put on the website. Suggestions included the Opportunity Quilt postcard, Quilt Show entry form, lists of library books, officers, and business members, and Quilt Show promotion. Maggie also asked for ideas about things to post on Facebook and Instagram. Anyone who has ideas about posts for social media or the website should let Maggie know.

1st Vice President, Lynne Todoroff:

The May General Meeting will be the basket auction. Lynne needs people to help supervise tables, log baskets, and rearrange tables after the meeting. Several Board Members volunteered to help. The Weekend Quilt Retreat will be Friday and Saturday, May 5th, and 6th. There are 21 people signed up so far. There is space for 25 total. The Annual Meeting, election of officers and Quilt Show orientation will be in June. There is no General Meeting in July due to the Quilt Show, and August will be a picnic at Freshwater Park and introduction of new officers.

Treasurer, Kathy Laforge:

There was a discussion about ways to reduce the cost of sending mailed newsletters to members who do not have email or Internet access. No action was taken.

Secretary, Angie Tustison:

Martha Johnson made a motion to approve the minutes from the Board Meeting on March 8th, 2023. There was a second by Nancy Frost, and the motion passed.

Quilt Show, Nancy Frost:

The vendor booth spaces are all filled. Everyone is highly encouraged to sign up for volunteer positions at the quilt show, and there will be sign-up sheets at the General Meetings. A photo and article about the most recent Quilt Show Planning Meeting has been sent to the Times Standard.

Community Liaison, Jeanine Norrish:

There was a discussion about whether pillowcases could be included with quilts that are donated to the North Coast Children's Center. Martha suggested that they may be a fun small project for our members. She will give a demonstration on making pillowcases at the Weekend Quilt Retreat. Jeanine will bring fabric for anyone who would like to make some pillowcases at the retreat.

Raffle table, Susie Freese:

There will be no raffle table in May due to the basket auction, but there will be a nice selection for the next General Meeting in June.

Past President, Martha Johnson:

Martha has updated the REQG brochures, and there are now brochures at the quilt shops. She will update the information on the "Be Our Guest" cards.

New Business:

There was a discussion about bringing back refreshments at the General Meetings. It was suggested that refreshments should be mostly finger foods, which do not require extra serving dishes or utensils. Members should continue to bring their own beverages. One or two people would be needed to chair the hospitality committee. Amy will put the word out to the membership to recruit volunteers.

Respectfully submitted by Angie Tustison
